Naveen to raise IIT issue again during Delhi visit

Pioneer News Service | Bhubaneswar

Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik on Monday left on a two-day visit to Delhi. During his visit, he would meet the Union Minister for Human Resources and Development Arjun Singh and reiterate Orissa's demand for an IIT and IIM. "We will again take up this issue with Singh," he said.

Patnaik will also meet Union Home Minister Shivraj Patil and demand that Orissa should be provided with relief material which was committed to the State during the flood that struck the State in October, 2007. The Centre had promised to provide 1 lakh 48,000 metric tonne of rice. Orissa will also urge the Centre to extend the deployment of CRPF in Kandhamal till March 15.
